Contents

Acknowledgments ........................................ vii

NCTE Position Paper on the Role of English Teachers in Educating English Language Learners (ELLs) ............. ix

Statement of Terminology and Glossary ................. xvii

Part I

Accountability for Equity

Chapter 1
So They May Learn and Thrive: Accountability for Equity ........................................ 3

Chapter 2
Principles of Accountability for Equity: Talking about Texts and Talking about Language .............. 21

Part II

Teaching for Accountability and Equity

Chapter 3
Classroom Illustration: Text Analysis and Argument Writing .................................................. 41

Chapter 4
Classroom Illustration: Exploring Voice .................. 68

Chapter 5
Classroom Illustration: Formative Assessment .......... 86

Part III

Demonstrating Accountability and Equity beyond the Classroom

Chapter 6
Assessment: How Genre-Based Instruction Prepares Multilingual Students for High-Stakes Tests ............. 113

Chapter 7
Reaching Outward: Accountability through Advocating for ELLs ........................................ 131

Appendix: How to Develop Language-Focused Genre-Based Lessons ........................................ 149

Notes .................................................................. 151

Annotated Bibliography: Recommended Reading and Resources for Teachers .......................... 153

References ..................................................... 157

Index .................................................................. 161

Authors .......................................................... 167