Contents

FOREWORD ix
Alan Sitomer

INTRODUCTION: WHY WE'RE FANS OF YOUNG ADULT LITERATURE xi

CHAPTER 1 Centering Young Adult Literature in the High School English Curriculum through Differentiated Instruction 1

CHAPTER 2 Getting into Character with the Realistic Young Adult Novel 14

CHAPTER 3 Historical Fiction: Connecting to Critical Theories 34

CHAPTER 4 The Verse Novel and Fluency Development for Older Adolescent Readers 48

CHAPTER 5 Teaching the Memoir: Responding to Others through Reader Response 77

CHAPTER 6 Differentiating for Cultural Difference: Moving from Reader Response to Critical Literacy with Multicultural YA Literature 93

CHAPTER 7 An Exciting Story and Some Soil: Exploring Biography Graphic-Novel Style 111

Teaching YA Lit through Differentiated Instruction by Susan L. Groenke and Lisa Scherff.
Copyright © 2010 by the National Council of Teachers of English.

CHAPTER 8 Adventure and Mystery Novels: Scaffolding Comprehension to Improve Inference and Prediction Skills 119

CHAPTER 9 Fantasy, the Supernatural, and Science Fiction: Reading Ladders and Ethical Discussions 130

CONCLUSION 145

REFERENCES 147

INDEX 167

AUTHORS 177